ORDER GOVERNING TELEPHONIC PARTICIPATION IN HEARINGS

On the court's own motion, it is ordered that the following procedures will apply to participation by telephone in hearings in the above-captioned case:

1. Only attorneys representing parties in interest in the case may attend hearings by telephone. Parties themselves (whether represented or unrepresented), members of the public, and members of the press may not attend by telephone, although they are free to attend in person.
2. Attorneys may attend by telephone only if they have no office in the Northern District of Illinois, or if they have an office in the Northern District but that office is more than 100 miles from the courthouse. Otherwise, attorneys must attend in person.
3. To "attend by telephone" means to listen only. Attorneys intending to address the court must attend hearings in person.
4. Attorneys who want to attend by telephone must arrange their own attendance by calling CourtCall at (866) 582-6878. Do not contact chambers or the clerk's office.
5. This order supersedes Standing Order No. 5 for purposes of this case.
