

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS
EASTERN DIVISION

STANDING ORDER NO. 4

MOTIONS TO LIFT OR MODIFY THE STAY

So that a secured creditor may demonstrate in its stay motion that it has at least a colorable claim to a perfected security interest, In re Vitreous Steel Prods. Co., 911 F.2d 1223, 1232 (7th Cir. 1990), effective for motions filed November 1, 2008, and thereafter in cases assigned to the undersigned:

A. All motions to lift or modify the stay regarding real or vehicular property must be accompanied by attached legible copies of the following supporting documents, namely (1) the security agreement or recorded mortgage or deed of trust, or motor vehicle title, and (2) note evidencing the debt underlying the lien on property that the creditor seeks to enforce.

B. Where the movant is not the same party as the secured party identified in those documents, the motion shall also explain that discrepancy.
