Bankruptcy Court Liaison Committee

The Bankruptcy Court Liaison Committee was established to promote communication regarding Court procedures, courtroom etiquette, filings, and other matters affecting the bankruptcy community. The Committee works collaboratively with the Court and attorneys to help foster a more efficient and effective environment.

The Committee also develops and sponsors educational programs addressing issues of interest to the bankruptcy bench, attorneys, financial institutions, consumers, and other members of the bankruptcy community. In addition, the Committee provides opportunities for social interaction to encourage greater communication and collegiality between the Court and those who appear before it.

The Committee provides a confidential and anonymous avenue for members of the bankruptcy community to share issues, concerns, suggestions, or ideas with the Committee through any Committee member. Such information will be presented to the Bankruptcy Judges for their review and consideration.
