II. Debtor Identification

There are multiple methods of verifying debtor identification that are acceptable to the U.S. Trustee under these circumstances.

A. Counsel verifies debtor's appearance and identity at or just prior to meeting of creditors

Debtor and counsel are in same physical location, or alternatively, counsel can verify debtor's appearance during or just prior to the meeting in person or via independent video with debtor such as Skype or Facetime.

At or prior to meeting, debtor provides counsel with both photo ID and proof of the debtors' social security number.

Counsel will represent and will be responsible for verifying on the record both photo ID and the debtors' social security number (Identification Documents) by identifying documents provided by debtor and represent that the photo identification matches the person attending the meeting of creditors.

Copies of both identifying documents will be emailed or faxed to the trustees as requested, ideally prior to the meeting.

B. Debtor provides verified Identification Documents after meeting of creditors

Trustee will conduct the meeting but continue it to a later date so that the debtor can provide the required Identification Documents to confirm their identity.

The trustee may allow the debtor to present the required Identification Documents before the next scheduled meeting.

Debtor may provide Identifying Documents before the next scheduled meeting through either (i) submission to the Trustee of the Counsel and Debtor Verification form (see below), or (ii) in same manner as pro se debtors (below).

Use of the Counsel and Debtor Verification form: Counsel will verify debtor identification by providing an attached verified statement to the trustee wherein: (i) counsel verifies under oath that debtor provided the Identification Documents to counsel, (ii) the debtor verifies under oath that they attended the meeting of creditors, and (iii) a copy of the Identification Documents is attached to the Counsel and Debtor Verification submitted to the trustee.

C. Pro se debtor verification through Notary Public or other appropriate official

A debtor may provide the attached verified statement signed by both debtor(s) and a Notary Public or other noted official.

A copy of the Identification Documents is attached to the verified statement, containing a signature of the Notary Public.
